

TODAY'S PRICES

Mexican bank notes, state bills, 60¢; pesos, 25¢; 5¢; new, 45¢; Mexican gold, 50¢; national, 25¢; bar silver, H. & H. quotation, 12.12¢; copper, 23¢/24¢; grains, lower; livestock, irregular; stocks, higher.

LATEST NEWS BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

SINGLE COPY, FIVE CENTS

EL PASO, TEXAS, SATURDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 13, 1919.

DELIVERED ANYWHERE, 75¢ MONTHLY

36 PAGES, 4 SECTIONS, TODAY

HOME EDITION

WEATHER FORECAST.
El Paso and west Texas, generally fair; New Mexico, fair, little change in temperature; Arizona, thunderstorms in east, followed by fair weather.

PERSHING VIRTUALLY FIGHTS WAR THROUGH CROWD OF FIGHTERS

Cheering Host, Having Long Waited to See Man Who Captained Armies in Greatest Struggle, Not to Be Denied, as Commander Goes to Officially Report Return From France With Mission Achieved.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 12.—Almost fighting his way through hundreds of admirers gathered at the war department, Gen. Pershing officially reported to secretary Baker today his return from France with his mission—victory over Germany—accomplished.

The cheering crowd had waited long to see the man that captained the armies in their greatest struggle and would not be denied. By series physical effort, aided by two of his staff officers and finally by guards of the building, Gen. Pershing got through into the secretary's room.

The final step was the most difficult. Women and girl clerks of the department, shrilly crying their greetings, closed in about the general and his aide at the door. He was for several minutes surrounded by a sea of white faces, finally the watchman caught him by the arm and really

Pershing's Humor Felt By Moro Chief

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 12.—A little known anecdote of Gen. Pershing's return to the Philippines proves that the great American soldier, who, it is said, never smiles, has a sense of humor.

When Datto Dickie, chief of the Moro of Jolo, took into himself a wife he selected a young tribeswoman who measured exactly 27 inches in height. The Datto himself was tall, for a Philippine, measuring over five feet.

The Datto and his bride were called upon by Gen. Pershing at his headquarters to present to him. Maj. Pershing promised them a suitable wedding present. He called in his engineers and instructed them to build a bungalow on the beach for the Datto and his bride and to have it ready for the wedding day.

He drew the plans for the house himself—two rooms, each one 27 inches high and 27 inches wide. The ceiling of one room was six feet high, the ceiling of the other 27 inches. The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in.

When the Datto and his bride moved in, the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

The bungalow was built on the beach, and the Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in. The Datto and his bride moved in.

Purposes Outlined in Declaration Of War Request Not Fulfilled Till Treaty Is Ratified, Says Wilson

Riot Act Read to Any Who Would Quit Program Approved Then By All.

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 12.—Reading to a Tacoma audience today a part of his address to congress asking a declaration of war with Germany, president Wilson declared the purpose thereof outlined was not yet fulfilled and would not be until the treaty was ratified.

Pointing out that he had asked to that address for a complete freedom from autocracy and guarantee for liberty everywhere, he said that was the program which had been adopted without respect to the method which it was proposed to achieve it.

When he asked whether the people wanted it, he said that the answer was "yes" and that the answer was "yes" and that the answer was "yes."

From that day his life's history has been filled with the things of the world.

Gen. Pershing will dine tonight with his father-in-law, senator Warren, at his home in Tacoma.

Recalling the cost of the war on both sides at $100,000,000,000 and the cost to the United States at $100,000,000,000 for two years, he said that was the cost in money of saving civilization.

In addition, he continued, there were 7,000,000 battle deaths. These were "terrible facts," he declared, and he had come out to the people to see whether they had forgotten them.

"The country has not forgotten," he added, "and it will never permit any man who stands in the way of the fulfillment of our pledges to forget the sorrowful day when he made the attempt."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

many didn't dare discuss or arbitrate her cause as she would have been bound to do under the covenant.

The labor section of the treaty also was praised by the president who said it had been "made by men with hearts under their jackets," and in the interests of human and just labor conditions.

On his first return from Paris, Wilson went on to his residence at the White House, where he was met by a large crowd of people.

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

Pact Minus League 'House of Cards'; With League 'Strong as Gibraltar.'

work of former president Taft and former attorney general Wickersham, for the league.

Mr. Wilson said he was deeply touched by the interest of mothers and of children in the hope of world peace.

Every woman with a child, declared the president, should live in fear if this plan for world peace failed.

"And those children who carried flags on the street today—I pray God they never will have to carry that flag on the field of battle."

Without the league, said Mr. Wilson, the treaty would be a "house of cards" which any "thrash of power" could overturn. With the league, he added, it was "as strong as Gibraltar."

Because it was the true American spirit to "give until it hurts," he said, "I am sure that no one will be able to resist the plea that we should make this treaty."

Reassessing his hope that no attempt would be made to crush the treaty, the president predicted that some day men would look back with surprise that anyone should have opposed it.

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

He then read for all of the proposed as a fulfillment of the nation's promise, asserted Mr. Wilson, was that we would not permit autocracy and quiet disorder. A new kind of autocracy was growing up, he said, in such movements as that which had overthrown Russia.

"I am an enemy of the rule of a few men," he said, "and I am an enemy of the rule of a few men."

STORM MOVING NORTH INTO LOUISIANA EX-CABINET MEMBER WILL DEFEND MEXICO AGAINST AMERICANS

May Miss Texas; Dangerous Gales Today and Tomorrow Are Predicted.

BARGE WITH 15 BELIEVED LOST

Schooners Sink at Cat Island; Bread Line Established at Key West.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 12.—The tropical storm is moving westward into Louisiana west of the mouth of the Mississippi. Dangerous easterly gales, probably reaching hurricane force Saturday and Sunday night, changing to westerly on the west and authority on the east coast Sunday morning, are predicted.

Barge Lost or Adrift.

Tampa, Fla., Sept. 12.—With her machinery disabled, lifeboats, ventilators and wireless apparatus blown away, the oil tanker Ligurian, of the Gulf Shipping company's fleet, limped this port Friday and reported that the steel barge Monongahela, with 15 men on board, is either lost with all hands or is adrift somewhere in the Gulf. The barge was in tow of the Ligurian, bound from Port Arthur, Tex., for Savannah.

Storm Hits Bahamas Islands.

Miami, Fla., Sept. 12.—Two schooners were wrecked at Cat Island, Bahamas group, with all on board, during the hurricane several days ago, according to reports which arrived here from the Bahamas Friday. At Eleuthera Island, several buildings were destroyed in the Windward Islands group. Schooners were lost and at Walling's Island several houses were destroyed.

British Mail Ship Sinks.

London, Sept. 12.—The British mail ship, the Thetis, was reported to have sunk in the Gulf of Mexico, according to reports which arrived here from the Bahamas Friday. The ship was bound for New York and was carrying a large cargo of mail.

Many Hours Before Storm.

Many hours before the storm which is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Whatever May Be Excuse for Armed Intervention, and Whatever May Be Pledge of Those Intervening, Obregon Says He Would Take Field Against Invaders; Thinks Most Mexicans Would Do Likewise.

NOGAL, Ariz., Sept. 12.—Gen. Alvaro Obregon, former minister of war in the Carranza cabinet, and a candidate for president in 1920, arrived today that he would take the field against the United States in the event of armed intervention by the United States.

At the same time Gen. Obregon denied statements he claimed had been made in the United States that he is anti-American, claiming these statements were the work of propaganda.

"If armed intervention should come, with a pledge that when order is restored, the intervening forces will withdraw, I shall be ready to take the field against the armed forces," he replied.

Whatever the excuse for launching armed intervention against Mexico, he said, the intervening forces will withdraw, I shall be ready to take the field against the armed forces.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of Mexico this morning, a tropical storm is expected to hit the Gulf of Mexico this morning.

Such is the story brought here by eight of the ships which were in the Gulf of